

Privacy Policy

This privacy statement outlines the privacy practices for Vetscience LLC.

Information Collection and Use

Vetscience will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement.

Web Site Registration

In order to purchase products directly from Vetscience, users will need to complete a basic online registration form, which includes mailing information such as name, address, and contact information. This information is used to contact users about the topics on our site for which they have expressed interest and to enable users to track shipments and retrieve lost passwords.

Credit Card Information

Online payment for direct purchases from Vetscience must be made via user credit card. Vetscience does not store any user credit card information during or after the purchase process but rather passes this data to our merchant processor (Authorize.net) for transactional purposes.

Cookies

Vetscience does not use cookies.

Sharing

Vetscience does not share customer data with outside parties.

Links

This Web site contains links to other sites. Please be aware that Vetscience does not claim any responsibility for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of each and every Web site that collects personally identifiable information. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by this Web site.

Security

Vetscience uses highly reputable third party vendors, consultants and suppliers for web and application hosting and support. Vetscience follows the guidelines and recommendations of these vendors in creating security for our user's information.

E-Mail Notifications

Users may receive from time to time updates and announcements from Vetscience regarding our products and services. Users may contact Vetscience at any time to opt out of such mailing.
